

Office of the Leader of the Opposition

Cabinet du chef de l'opposition

May 2005

It is my pleasure to extend greetings to visitors of the Apathy is Boring website. I applaud your interest in our great nation and encourage you to become involved in defining Canada's future.

Our democracy is kept healthy between elections by people getting active and interested in what is going on around them. Don't forget that those who fail to speak their own minds are allowing others to speak for them.

As a minimum, I strongly hope that you will use your vote as your voice on Election Day – to keep our democracy healthy, and our political system strong. If you are interested in getting more involved in the political process, I suggest you consider joining and participating in a political party.

The Conservative Party, and most other parties in Canada, make a special effort to attract and involve young people. In my own caucus, I am particularly proud that we have twenty Members of Parliament under the age of 40, and even four in their 20's. The success of these members getting elected demonstrates that there really is no limit for younger Canadians to be involved in the political system.

Thanks again for your interest, and best wishes,

Sincerely,

Hon. Stephen Harper, P.C., M.P.

Leader of the Conservative Party of Canada
